

Hi my name is Kim Weiss and I have been the Coordinator of Youth Ministry at St. Matthew Parish since July of 2008. I married my husband Peter in August 2004 and we have two beautiful children (Addie – 4; Eli – 1). I graduated from UW-Madison in 2005 with a degree in Kinesiology and currently am working on obtaining my Certificate in Youth Ministry through the Center for Ministry Development. I love being a mother, I enjoy playing sports and I'm fascinated by the depth of our God's love for us.

As a high-school participant through my own personal through multiple amazing (retreats, Bible studies, and worship/fellowship importance of daily and reading/meditating more fully. The Lord people and how He desire, more than hearts to receive the love and praise in my own church's youth group, experiences at mass and experiences at college service trips, daily mass, weekly praise evenings), I have learned the prayer, celebrating the sacraments on Scripture to come to know Jesus has shown me how much He loves His longs for us to love Him in return. I anything, to help people open their intense love of Jesus and to pour their out to Him.

Favorite Passage:

Phillipians 4: 6-7 "Do not worry about anything, but in everything, through prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your request know to God. It is then the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus the Lord."
